

Commonwealth Civil Society Forum

Saturday, 21 May 2016

1500-1830 | Crans Room | Starling Hotel Geneva

Welcome reception | 1830-1930

*In conjunction with the 28th Commonwealth Health Ministers' meeting
Sunday 22 May 2016 | Starling Hotel Geneva*

Health Security and Universal Health Coverage

Speakers:

Dr Ravi Rannan-Eliya; Ms Tania Holt; Ms Leena Mangheney; Dr Penny Dash; Ms Christine Hancock; Dr Abu Bakarr Fofanah; Ms Solveigh Hieronimus

Moderated by: Dr Penny Dash, McKinsey and Company

Hosted by:

Commonwealth
Foundation

McKinsey&Company

RSVP: For catering purposes, please email attendance to:

Dr Tony Nelson, Secretary, Commonwealth Health Professions Alliance:

secretary@chpa.co. Please include: title, full name, position, organisation, and country

Commonwealth Civil Society Forum

Saturday, 21 May 2016
1500-1830 | Starling Hotel Geneva
Welcome reception | 1830-1930

Health Security and Universal Health Coverage

1500-1515	Welcome	Mr Vijay Krishnarayan: Director, Commonwealth Foundation Dr Tony Nelson: Secretary, Commonwealth Health Professions Alliance
1515-1530	Universal Health Coverage: a prerequisite for health security and universal health coverage. A review of Commonwealth mixed funding models.	Dr Ravi Rannan-Eliya, Director, Institute for Health Policy Colombo Sri Lanka
1530-1555	Moderated panel discussion, questions and answers, audience participation	Dr Penny Dash: Leader, Western Europe, McKinsey and Company
1555-1600	Launch of commissioned research paper Universal Health Coverage: A review of Commonwealth fixed funding models	Dr Tony Nelson: Secretary, Commonwealth Health Professions Alliance
1600-1610	Free Trade Agreements and their threat to health security	Ms Leena Menghaney: Médecins Sans Frontières Access Campaign India
1610-1620	Mitigating threats to health security from natural disasters	Ms Tania Holt: Partner in McKinsey and Company, South Africa
1620-1630	NCDs: positive action on a global threat to health security	Ms Christine Hancock: CE and Founder, C3 Collaborating for Health
1630-1700	Moderated panel discussion, questions and answers, audience participation	Dr Penny Dash: Leader, Western Europe, McKinsey and Company
1700-1720	Strengthening health systems to withstand unexpected shocks	Dr Abu Bakarr Fofanah: Minister for Health and Sanitation, Sierra Leone
1720-1730	Mitigating threats to health security from man-made disasters and the impact for countries of migration and refugees	Solveigh Hieronimus: McKinsey and Company, Germany
1730-1830	Moderated panel discussion, questions and answers, audience participation	Dr Penny Dash: Leader, Western Europe, McKinsey and Company